VENI! VIDI! VICI!

THE SUBSCRIBERS, HAVING BEEN APPOINTED by the manufacturers Sole Agents for Kentucky for the sale of VAN DEUSEN'S MAGICAL BLUE, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the decided advantages they possess over other articles of a similar kind.

VAN DEUSEN'S MAGICAL BLUE

IS USED FOR BLUEING CLOTHES, DYEING, AND MAKING BLUE INK.

TRY IT! TRY IT! TRY IT!

☞ VAN DEUSEN'S MAGICAL BLUE is ten times cheaper than Indigo, will not settle in the vessel used for use. It cannot injure clothing, while it gives them an almighty whiteness or a beautiful blue color, according to the quantity used.

A small particle, equal in bulk to a mustard seed, dissolved in half a pint of water, is sufficient for family washing. A quantity equal in bulk to a pea, mixed in a teacup full of cold water, makes a permanent writing Ink that will not corrode, and known as "Van's Blue," that will not fade. A tablespoonful mixed in a pint of water will make an Azure Dye for Silk, Cotton and Woolen Goods.

VAN DEUSEN'S CONFECTIONS!

A PURELY VEGETABLE WORM SPECIFIC! — A CERTAIN CURE FOR WORMS!!

TRY ONE BOX!

☞ VAN DEUSEN'S WORM CONFECTIONS we claim to be the best, because they are palatable, and can be administered by the most delicate; they free out the worm thoroughly without pain, are effectual curatives of bowel and teething complaints, and restore health and vigor, lustre to the eye, color to the cheek, and cheerfulness to the spirits. Because they not only remove worms, but their diseases; and, if not bringing worms away entire, cutting them up and decomposing them so that they are evacuated insensibly. And, lastly, because they are used by the best physicians in their daily practice.

VAN DEUSEN'S CONFECTIONS are a Pure White—NEVER GIVE COLORED URINE. Your doctor will tell you such must contain more or less Poison, and that the bulk of them includes Calomel, Croton Oil, and other dangerous Drugs.

Van Deusen's Worm Confections are PURELY VEGETABLE.

VAN DEUSEN'S BLACK INK POWDERS!

THE BEST IN USE—TRY THEM.

☞ VAN DEUSEN'S BLACK INK POWDERS are warranted to make a jet black and permanent ink, that will not fade or corrode a steel pen—an article that the public has long wanted.

Van Deusen's French Prepared Glue

REQUIRES JOINTS IN FURNITURE AND OTHER WOOD WORK; MENDS CROCKERY, GLASS, CHINA, MARBLE, STATUARY, TABLETS, VASES, BROKEN BOOK-BINDING, BOOT AND SHOE HEELS, BILLIARD CUES; REPLACES VENEERING, &c., &c.

Try It! Try It! Try It!

☞ VAN DEUSEN'S FRENCH PREPARED GLUE is the most tenacious, bonafide GLUE, for that binding substance in the relations parts of all animals. Chemistry, by a severe test of 21 months' ordeal, separates its grosser parts. The FRENCH, the best practical chemists in the world, made it discover, which gives every one the power to do it all times, and in a far better manner, what formerly could only be done in the cabinet-maker's and other workshops.

VAN DEUSEN'S FRENCH PREPARED GLUE never spoils by climate, cold or damp, but will always be solid; yet the warmth of the hand, or a few minutes near the fire, brings its highest liquidity.

The thousand and one uses of this Glue, saving many dollars any church inconvenience in any family, will be fully pointed by one bottle; and after that, nothing will persuade a family to be without it. Anything can be done with it by a little manual skill and common judgment.

N. B. A Brush accompanies each bottle.

☞ We will supply Druggists and Merchants at the manufacturer's lowest prices. Druggists who supply dealers will find these articles very saleable. Attractive Show-Cards accompany each package of Van Deusen's Preparations.

☞ Retailed by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. A dress L. E. & T. TALBURT,

THURSDAY MORNING.....OCT. 18, 1860.

☞ The Black Republicans shout for freedom! freedom! freedom! They mean, of course, negro freedom, not the freedom of the white man. There is quite as much freedom South as North, as far as white men are concerned. This exultation is for negro freedom; that is all that it means. They ought, in honesty, shout negro freedom, and not simply freedom.

All the expense, all the processions, all the Wide-Awake organizations, are for the freedom of the negro; not for the freedom of the white man. If they would look at home, they would find work enough to do, if negro freedom is so important. In most of their States the negro can't hold office, can't serve on juries, can't bear testimony in court, and in some of them he is not permitted to live. If his freedom is of such vast consequence, why can't these Wide-Awakes reform their own States? They nullify the law to prot ect the negro from his Southern owner, but they deny to the negro, after they get him, all the rights that make freedom worth anything. They resolve that all men are born free and equal, meaning to include the negro, if they mean anything, and then, in all their State institutions, repudiate their resolutions. They assert in their laws and Constitutions that the negro is not equal to the white man. He is not free to take any part in the Government. He can live an inferior amongst a superior race, and in competition with it, or starve to death. He is, indeed, but an outcast, and a vagabond, without a country and without a home, in a free State; whilst it is the interest of the free States to get rid of him. Such is the end of all these hypocritical shouts for freedom.

☞ The editor of the Courier seeks to justify or palliate the infamous treason of the Breckinridge party in Indiana, in voting for the Abolition ticket by charging that the Bell men did the same. The cases have no analogy. The Bell men did not participate in the convention that nominated Hendricks. They were under no obligation to support the Democratic ticket; they never pledged themselves to its support; they had always, in times past, voted against the Democracy; they had received no favors at its hands; they had fought a life-time battle against it; they had never battled under its flag. And yet very many of them, in this hour of peril to their country, nobly forgot old differences and buried old animosities to vote the Democratic State ticket. The Democratic party had no claims upon them, but the country had, and they responded to the call. All honor to such patriotism.

Widely different was the situation of Bright and his mulatto serfs. They had participated in the Convention that nominated the Democratic State Ticket. The ticket was fairly and satisfactorily divided between the friends and opponents of Douglas. Every obligation of honor, honesty, consistency and common decency demanded that they should support the ticket thus nominated. It was composed of men who had sustained Bright through half a lifetime; who had made his political fortune It was supported by a party to whom he and his serfs owed all of political importance and success that they could bost. Not only were these obligations imperative upon them, but up even to the day of the election, they had sworn most solemnly that they would support it.

Afraid of showing their own weakness, but still more afraid of endangering the success of their Abolition allies, they refused to nominate a State ticket of their own. The sole object of this movement was that their party might be free to vote the Abolition ticket, and they did vote it.

These peculiar friends of the South, these simon-pure Democrats, could find no better way of exhibiting their devotion to Southern rights and Southern interests than by voting for the Black Republican ticket; and that, too, in an election where every vote cast for the Republicans was worth more to them than a hundred votes would be worth in November.

☞ That bogus Breckinridge committee, which hunts about Washington, have issued a document, we understand, developing and proving, by "inexorable logic," an awful conspiracy between Bell and Douglas, not merely to divide this Union, but to split it in pieces. Bell is to be President of a Southern Confederacy, and Douglas of a Northwestern one. There must be some mistake about it, because Mason and Dixon, Douglas Electors, were up at Indianapolis, and agreed to run the old line away up through the lakes, and as much further North as Democrats could be found.

We object, however, to these Breckinridge men poking fun at South Carolina and the other cotton States, that are now supporting Breckinridge. They mean to deride the charge of disunion designs. What have South Carolina and her co-workers to say to this contemptuous treatment of their declared purposes?

☞ The Black Republicans of Indiana are proud of their accessions from the Breckinridge ranks. They are welcome to what they have got, and we only hope that their new allies will serve them as they have done the Democracy, at just such a juncture—desert and go over to the enemy.

☞ The Memphis Avalanche has discovered that the Douglas men are abusing R. B. Taney, Chief Justice of the United States. We don't know where he found this abuse; but it has been revealed to him. It is understood that Judge Taney will vote for Douglas, if he votes at all.

☞ In fifty-two counties, in Indiana, Lane's majority is 1,805. His gains in the rest of the State, in the same proportion, will give him about 6,000 majority. If Lincoln carries the State, he will owe it to his new allies, the Breckinridge men.

☞ What a beautiful specimen of the "power coupled with the duty," is the advice of Bright to his allies, to vote for Lane! It is Bright Mulattoism of a very dark shade.

☞ The Courier insists that, according to the law, we must prove that Bright voted the Black Republican ticket. The proof is complete; and as he refuses to plead "not guilty," it is sufficient proof that he did so vote.

☞ A letter, we understand, was addressed, recently, to Major Breckinridge, in the name of a political friend, calling for an answer to the Norfolk questions. John, however, made no answer. John is the most distinguished mute at his own political funeral.

☞ Has Major Breckinridge no reply to make to the 50,000 South Carolinians who are ready to go out of the Union when they hear his sovereign pleasure? We have heard that they signified their desire to hear from him. If he is not willing for them to go out, can he be considered an "out and out" Southerner.

☞ The Courier insists that it shall be proved that Bright voted the Black Republican ticket. The uniform declaration of all his neighbors of all parties, in Indiana, is that he did so vote. The fact that he advised his friends to beat the Democratic party, and his declaration, that the members of his party, on the day of election, were at liberty to vote as they pleased, and that he does not deny that he voted the Black Republican ticket, is to impartial persons conclusive evidence, no matter what the Courier may believe or assert to the contrary.

☞ Senator Benjamin made a pettifogging speech against Douglas in the Senate, and it has been circulated by the million and read by many of the faithful. He said:

"More than one-half the speech of the honorable Senator from Illinois (Douglas) was devoted, as I said before, to the purpose of proving his own consistency, from some period which I do not care to go back to, down to 1854 and 1856, and the present time. He says he is now consistent with the principles he then professed. I do not deny it, I do not know that anybody denies it. On the contrary, that is the precise charge brought against him, as I shall proceed to show."

His charge against Douglas is, that he is consistent.

TO DAY'S ELECTION.—We regard the present and near future as very critical to the civilization and the institutions of the South. If Lincoln be elected in November, as seems highly probable, and none of the States of the South move to resist and withdraw from the domination of a hostile sectional majority, our condition will be dangerous and humiliating in the extreme. Property of every description must fall, and insecurity and alarm extend from Harper's Ferry to the borders of Texas. Nor can we perceive any overt act of aggression that would be potent enough to arouse the South from a speedy inability to establish her safety and independence. At any rate, delay must require a compound and usurious interest of blood. Therefore, is it important to-day for the people of South Carolina to choose such a body of men as will see that, so far as they are empowered, the State receives no detriment from their incapacity and timidity.—Charleston Mercury.

The Charleston Mercury has always been ultra. At present, however, there seems no other sentiment in the State.

LEXINGTON TROTTING RACES.—The match between E. M. Todhunter's b s Idol, by Membrino Chief, and Enoch Lewis' br s by the same horse, came off over the Lexington Trotting Course on Saturday evening last. It was for $500, mile heats, three best in five, and was won handily by Mr. Lewis' horse in three straight heats. Time, 2:49; 2:41; 2:38½.

The match for $1,000 between Mr. A. H. Brand's b s Brignoli, by Membrino Chief, and Dr. L. Herr's br s Cassius M. Clay, Jr., by Cassius M. Clay, two mile heats, which was to have been trotted on Monday evening, did not come off, the forfeit being paid by Dr. Herr, whose horse was seriously complaining. The owners of Iron Duke offered to substitute him for Cassius M. Clay, Jr., but Mr. Brand, who intends taking his horse to Louisville, declined the proposition, but he offers to trot Brignoli against the Duke at Louisville, next week, as will be seen by propositions published in this day's paper.

It is to be regretted that Cassius M Clay, Jr., was incapacited from going on Monday, as great interest was felt in the contest between him and Brignoli, both being remarkably fine stallions and "as fast as lightning."—Lex. Observer.

MODELS OF ELOQUENCE.—We have rarely seen more perfectly unexceptionable speeches than those which passed between Mayor Wood and the Prince of Wales, upon the reception of the latter at Castle Garden Our people are so given to speech-making and are so apt to overdo the matter, that it is refreshing to fall upon a couple of discourses at once so brief and so pertinent as these:

MAYOR WOOD—Your Royal Highness: As Chief Magistrate of the City, I welcome you here, and believe that in so doing I represent the entire population, without exception.

THE PRINCE OF WALES—It affords me a very great pleasure to accept the welcome, and I have no doubt that it will be worthy of the great City of New York.

In each case precisely the right thing was said and nothing more. We hope that the example may be deemed worthy of imitation.

SERIOUS TROUBLES AT TRINITY COLLEGE A shooting affray occurred at Trinity College, Hartford, on Thursday, which created some excitement. The Times gives the history of the affair as follows:

"Trinity of late years has had the "militia tory" proceedings in full force. The class was put through at Odd Fellows' Hall some days since. But three students declined the honor of being "one for." Subsequently one of them was taken to Zion's Hill Cemetery, and lashed to a gravestone. He represented Patience on a Monument till late at night, when one of his class appeared and cut him loose. Another was forced into a carriage, and taken two or three miles away, and slung, with a rope under his arms, into an old well, and there left suspended. One more remained—Preston Davis Sill, of South Carolina—a quiet, peaceable young man, who would disturb no one, and who himself preferred not to be disturbed or personally abused. Last evening a carriage was provided, and Sill was seized in the college yard by two students, others being near to assist, and they attempted to force him into the carriage. Sill, fully conscious that he had harmed no one, and being waylaid thus, with old wells and tombstones in prospect, drew an Allen's revolver, and fired upon his assailants. In the tussle the shot missed. The faculty were roused, the assailants disappeared, and Mr. Sill was conducted into the college."

AN UNEXAMPLED TRAGEDY.—The Gates (N C) correspondent of the Petersburg Express gives the following account of one of the most brutal and desperate tragedies ever put on record:

A man named Jackson accused his neighbor Davis of having stolen some of his hogs, and on last Friday evening, in walking around his farm, he discovered three of Davis' children on his land, whereupon he carried one of them home with him. The two other children returned home and told their parents what had happened. Infuriated, they armed themselves with guns, axes and knives, and soon presented themselves at Jackson's house, where a general fight ensued, in which both men, women, and children participated. They shot until their ammunition gave out, and then closed in with axes, knives, and gun-barrels. During the shooting a son of Jackson's, a mere boy, was killed by (it is thought) a son of Davis', also a lad. Seven of the party were dangerously wounded—one of the women having received a broken arm, and, it is said, fifty buckshot! From all accounts they fought as long as they could, and quit with mutual consent. The surviving parties have been arrested and placed in the county jail to await trial.

☞ Some of the Republican papers in Indiana have undertaken to sneer at Col. Blanton Duncan's visit to that State as a failure. We are, however, gratified to see that those portions of Indiana where Col. D. made his speeches, have stood up against the sectional storm well. The Terre Haute District has given a majority of over 1,200 against the Lincoln ticket. The Union men are very strong in that District comparatively, and were not misled into the support of sectionalism.—Lou Journal.

HOW JESSE D. BRIGHT VOTED.—A gentleman of veracity, and whom we can avouch as such, stated to us yesterday, in the presence of others, that he saw Mr. Jesse D. Bright's ticket, which the Senator voted on the 9th inst., and that it was the full Republican ticket, with one exception. He voted for Lane, Republican, and against Hendricks, as did the Breckinridge men of Indiana generally.—Cin. Enquirer.

☞ The King of Naples did not forget to provide himself with pocket money before he left his country. He sent to the Treasury for 880,000 ducats, which was furnished him, and he has been shipping bullion for some time past expecting an emergency. His departure is thus described by the correspondent of the London Times: "Somewhere about dusk, just as the short-lived twilight faded away, you could see the royal steamers putting out to sea. Not a flag was dropped; not a gun was fired; and not above fifty people, of whom I was one, were collected on the quay, hard by the Palace, to see the last. The evening had cleared up, and the sky and sea were as blue and the scene as bright as they are at this hour at Naples, and at Naples only. Little as I love the Bourbon race, I own I should have been glad to hear one word of sympathy uttered for the unhappy boy king who was leaving the paradise where his father had reigned so long. But I heard none; and, almost unheeded and unwatched, the vessel bearing the fugitive Sovereign passed away into the darkness. So ends the reign of Francis II, and with it the first act of the Neapolitan revolution."

A SAD AFFAIR.—On last Saturday night several persons went to the widow Hatfield's, some four or five miles from this place, and attempted to break into the house. Mrs. Hatfield and two girls were in the house and became very much alarmed. There was no man living about the house. Mrs. Hatfield reports that the persons, whoever they were, called her dog by name, and conversed considerably with each other. They also tried to raise a window and break down the door shutter. After telling them to leave, and threatening to shoot if they did not, Mrs. Hatfield took down her gun and does not know whether she fired it or not, but there was a deaf and dumb man shot, who died but a short distance from the house. When the neighbors heard the disturbance, they came in and found the dead man. The widow and the two girls had left the house in their fright, and taken refuge in the woods. There have been several efforts to break into the house in the past year, as it is understood that Mrs. H. has a considerable amount of money. These are about the facts, as we received them from Mrs. Hatfield. The usual inquest was held over the deceased, and about the usual verdict rendered. We have not learned the deceased's name, but learn that he was deaf and dumb, and an inoffensive man. The whole affair is a mysterious one to us. We will try and learn all the particulars by our next issue.—Bloomfield (Ind) Times.

☞ Riding in Central Park is the great feature for Saturdays in New York. Sometimes 4,000 vehicles enter that magnificent enclosure in a single day, besides equestrians and foot-walkers almost without number. By actual count, the number of visitors occasionally reaches full 20,000 a day, but is exceedingly variable, depending not only on the state of the weather, but upon the day of the week. The architectural works with which the Park abounds, surpasses, in some instances, anything to be found elsewhere in the city. At the grand Terrace, which commands a view of the lake, at the mall, there has already been expended $50,000 or $60,000, chiefly in masonry, and the expenditure yet contemplated at this point will perhaps double these figures. The bridges erected over the water, or at the intersection of different roads, are most of them exquisite specimens of workmanship. One bridge cost as high as $26,000, and several others very considerable sums. The iron bridges, though less expensive, generally cost from $8,000 to $6,000. Special attention is now being devoted to the planting of large trees, for which the requisite machinery will be employed, after the manner adopted in France.

THE FASHIONABLE COLOR OF THE SEASON Red is the fashionable color now among the ladies of Paris. We see, says a letter, black mousequetaire hats, bordered with red and decorated with a red feather; the red flannel undersskirt is displayed by the dress being tucked up a la Pompadour, in festoons; the red stockings set off to advantage the prettily turned ankle, the Parisian black bottine. This costume has become the vogue from having been adopted by the Empress in her evenings on the sea side at Biarritz. The brilliant color is peculiarly adapted for displaying to advantage the beautifully fair complexion of her Majesty.

MEMPHIS FAIR.—The premium of $1,000 for the best thorough bred horse, at the Memphis Fair last week, was awarded to Schythian, belonging to R. A. Alexander, Esq., of Woodford county, Ky. Peaks of Otter, by Childe Harold, and his half brother were the only contestants. Five premiums were awarded to Messrs. Dillard & Cavins, of Fayette county, Kentucky, as follows: $20 for the best two year old bull, $25 for the best two year old native buck, $20 for the best one year old buck, $15 for the best pair of ewes (three years old), and $10 for the best lot two years old.

☞ The famous (or infamous) "Agapemone," or "Abode of Love," in England, a description of which we recently published, under the guise of religion, is about to be removed from England to this country, it seems. Its manager, who pretends to be divinely inspired, like Brigham Young, has been so severely mulcted in the British courts of justice, lately, that he is inclined to try the United States, where a large gold piece is supposed sufficient to close the eyes of Justice altogether. We are getting a noble reputation abroad.

A MISTAKE.—The Cincinnati Commercial insists on calling one of our "distinguished" United States Senators "Bogus Fitch." That print should know that the Republicans of Indiana have dropped that term from their vocabulary when referring to both of our Senators. They refer to them now as the Honorable Mr. Bright and the Honorable Mr. Fitch, in consideration of their valuable services in carrying Indiana against the Democracy at the late election. "A fellow feeling makes them wondrous kind."

Indiana Sentinel.

STOCK SALES AT GEORGETOWN.—Monday was County Court day in Scott county. The sale of stock aggregated $27,252 75. The Journal says that there was a very good quantity as well as quality of stock in the market, which brought good prices, considering the tightness of the times. Mules brought from $34 to $111 per head; cattle from $18 40 to $32 60; horses from $68 to $163. The following sales of slaves, belonging to Mr. Wm. Cantrill, was also made: 1 girl, 15 years old, $1,530; 1 boy, 8 years old, $900; 1 woman and 8 children, $1,700; 1 girl, 7 years old, $720; 1 girl, 5 years old, $500. Total amount of sale $5,200.

☞ The Old Soldiers' Convention will be held at Knightstown, in this State, on Thursday, the 25th of October. We learn from Col. Doughty, who has taken a great interest in the object of the Convention, and who has labored unceasingly to awaken an interest in the claims of the veterans of 1812, that a number of Old Soldiers from Ohio and other States have promised to be present. The object of this meeting, we presume, is generally understood. It is to present the claims of the soldiers of 1812 to Congress, and urge the passage of a law granting pensions to the survivors.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—We understand that an idiot met with a horrible death in Estill county last week. He had eluded the vigilance of his friends, and escaped to the woods. After several hours search, his friends found him perched on the top most limbs of a large tree, sitting at his ease, rocking in the air. Speaking to him calmly, they asked him if he did not think it time to descend. He replied in the affirmative, and told them to make way; and swinging from the limb with his hands, let all holds go and fell to the ground, crushing his body horribly, and causing instant death.

MARRIAGE OF THE REV. H. G. GUINNESS. Rev. H. Grattan Guinness, if nothing prevented the fulfillment of the announcement in the Dublin papers—was married, on the 2d inst., to Miss Fitzgerald, a niece of Lord Fitzgerald and Vesey, and of the Marchioness of Ailsa. The Dublin Express says that Miss F. is a "most devoted Christian and highly accomplished lady." Mr. G. is also announced to sail for this country in the Great Eastern on the 17th of the present month.

☞ Among the patents issued for the week, ending October 2d, we find the following:

David M. Mefford, of Jeffersonville, Ind., for improvement in machines for stemming cornhusks.

REISSUE.—Augustus C. Vandike, of Greenupsburg, Ky., for improvement in heating ores. Patented April 21, 1860.

☞ Josiah Quincy, Sr., of Boston, has written a letter saying that nearly, if not quite, seventy years since he had the honor of joining in a dance at Concert Hall, Boston, with the Duke of Kent, grandfather of Baron Renfrew, and, if his age did not prohibit, would esteem it an honor to unite on a like occasion with the grandson.

Hon. Lafayette Foster, United States Senator from Connecticut, was married a short time since to Miss Martha P. Lyman, of Boston. Ten of the bride's brothers and sisters, all married, were present at the ceremony, with their families.

LIBERAL AND SPIRITED.—The Common Council of Lynchburg has appropriated $2,500 for the erection of an armory and drill room for the use of the volunteers and fire companies of that city.

THE MIRACLE OF JANUARIUS' BLOOD.—A London correspondent of the Presbyterian remarks:

"Punch has this week an amusing caricature, representing Garibaldi in his well-known dress—the red blouse—with a miserable priest, loaded with the monkish tools of his superstitious trade, crouching in terror and trying to escape from his presence. St Januarius' blood and a picture of a wrinkled virgin are conspicuous among his treasures. It is said that Garibaldi has already demanded a performance of the miracle of blood-melting in attestation of the approval by the Saint of his entry into Naples, and the priests will be obliged to comply, as they were once before, when Napoleon I gave the same order. At all events, it is seriously contemplated to send a deputation from England—and parties are already named for this purpose—whose mission shall be to wait on the Dictator and request that he will bring the alleged miracle to the test of chemistry in the face of the Neapolitan world. You are, perhaps, aware that Lord Fielding ventured publicly, a few years ago, to affirm the genuineness of the miracle in a controversy with Sir Culling Eardley, and the proposals will be made that his lordship should form one of the deputies."

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN CONNECTICUT—A MAN BEATS HIS TWO DAUGHTERS AND CUTS HIS OWN THROAT.—A horrid double murder was perpetrated on Monday evening, in Bridgewater, Litchfield county. A man by the name of David Villets, a hatter by trade, while in a fit of passion, or temporary insanity, murdered his two daughters, aged eleven and fifteen years respectively, and then attempted to put an end to his own existence by cutting his throat. Villets is about forty years of age, has always lived in Bridgewater, and has always been considered a steady, temperate man.

Villets' throat was sewed up, and he was able to tell what he had done, but was not disposed to say much, remarking that he supposed he should be examined. His manner was perfectly rational. If insane at the time of committing the murders, he had apparently recovered. It is stated that several of his connections by the mother's side have been deranged.

It is thought that Villets will recover. He is now confined in Litchfield county jail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CAUTION.

SPURIOUS AMERICAN WATCHES.

WE are credibly informed that some of the Jewelers of Louisville and other places are selling counterfeit and imitation American Watches for the genuine article, manufactured at Waltham, Mass., and particularly a foreign imitation of our watch, named P. S. Bartley, which is represented to be manufactured in Hartford, Conn. It may be of service to the public to be informed that there is no manufactory of watches in that place. The genuine article of one grade of our watches is named P. S. BARTLETT, WALTHAM, MASS., and all our watches of every grade are marked "Waltham, Mass."

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches are like ours in form only, and are made upon the same old system that has already flooded the country with watches that are not only vexatious and a constant source of expense, but really useless to the owners, and when bought for genuine are calculated to injure the high reputation which our watches have attained. We therefore caution the public against buying our watches from any person who cannot furnish a certificate of genuineness for every watch offered for sale, bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. E. Robbins. We also beg to inform those who deal in the spurious article,

LOUISVILLE, KY.:
THURSDAY MORNING.....OCT. 18, 1860.

☞ Any Physician desiring one of the best country locations for the practice of Medicine, in the State of Kentucky, is referred to the advertisement of Dr. Neal, of Bridgeport, Ky., in today's paper. 6

PAUL MORPHY.—Paul Morphy in declining a chess challenge from Louis Paulsen, says that he had not come North to play chess, and would only encounter Paulsen at odds, and in an occasional game or two at the club. There are other reasons. Morphy truly says that he does not make of chess a profession, but simply a pastime; and if, because he was so fortunate, or unfortunate, as to obtain great proficiency at the game, he must be made to play nolens volens, at home and abroad, now and at all times, life is not worth a farthing to him.

☞ Go to McCarrell's for the best music.

☞ Mr. E. Klauber showed us yesterday some very fine pictures of the Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, at the Bee Hive Gallery, on Main street, between Third and Fourth. Go, everybody, and see them.

☞ Furniture-buyers and housekeepers will find a general assortment of excellent mahogany, walnut, and rosewood furniture, parlor and chamber chairs, carpets and rugs, this morning at 10 o'clock, at the auction rooms of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. Expecting a large lot of damaged goods, the above furniture must be sold without regard to price, to make room.

☞ The towboat Windsor, from Pomeroy, arrived yesterday with a heavy tow of Pomeroy coal for Messrs. Olmstead & O'Conner. Their office is on the west side of Third street, between Market and Jefferson, and corner of Brook and Market streets. Send in your orders and lay in a supply of good coal.

LOUISVILLE LIGHT HOUSE—SIMRALL & HUGHES.—We call the attention of city and country readers, to the card of Messrs. Simrall & Hughes in our columns this morning. These gentlemen have opened an establishment on Main street, a few doors below Fourth street, at No. 408, and are ready to supply every description of lamps, chandeliers, and fixtures of all kinds, together with burning and lubricating coal oil, vesper gas, paraffine candles, &c.

The members of this firm are well known in Louisville. They are gentlemen of excellent business capacity, clever and courteous dealers. Those in want of anything in their line will find their stock worthy of their attention.

HARVARD COLLEGE.—By the catalogue, we fine that the whole number of students in all the departments is 896. There are 23 Divinity Students, 167 Law Students, 72 Scientific Students, exclusive of the resident graduates, and members of the other professional schools who attend the Scientific Lectures, 191 Medical Students, 1 Astronomical Student, and 9 Resident Graduates. The under graduates number 443. There are 82 Seniors, 101 Juniors, 134 Sophomores, and 126 Freshmen.

HOGS IN INDIANA.—The assessors' returns from thirty-nine counties, in Indiana, show a deficiency, from 1859, of 211,567. In Ohio, in the same number of counties, the returns show a falling off from last year's figures of 190,790.

THE HOG CROP.—Speaking of the hog crop in Nelson, Spencer, Larue and Washington counties, the Bardstown Gazette says:

Last year Nelson county had 28,125 hogs, and this year there are only 18,483—a falling off of 4,642. We understand that sales have been made in this county at $5 gross for heavy hogs for early delivery. The total number of hogs in Spencer county, in 1859, was 13,297 against 11,538 in 1860. Number in Larue, in 1859, 12,409 against 9,816 in 1860. Number in Washington, in 1859, 19,220 against 18,116 in 1860. Thus it will be seen that there has been a falling off in the hog crop in Spencer, Larue and Washington, of 10,000 hogs this year.

The Carlisle (Ky.) Advocate, of last week, says:

Hogs for November delivery are selling quick at $4 75 per 100 gross. Some few are asking $5, with a pretty fair show to get it ere the season closes. The crop from this county will be good. About the same in number as last year, but heavier in weight.

LAND SALE IN SCOTT.—The farm of the late Mrs. Mary A. Hood, in Scott county, containing 150 acres of land, was purchased on Thursday last, by Colonel W. W. Jacobs, at $115 per acre.

☞ Thanks to the ever-attentive messengers of the Adams Express Company for Cincinnati, Indianapolis and New Orleans papers in advance of the mail, as usual.

☞ John Young Brown will speak, by invitation, to-day in Nashville, after which he will fill a list of appointments in Meade, Nelson, Henderson, and Daviess counties. Turn out.

☞ W. J. Norman will sell, at his auction room, a large lot of boots, shoes, jewelry, dry goods and groceries, to-night at 7½ o'clock.

WATER WORKS.—The water is not generally distributed through the mains as yet, owing to some discovered leaks in some of the streets. These leaks are always attendant upon new works, but will soon be remedied and the city furnished with abundant water.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that a laborer at Adolph Peter's brewery near the Beargrass, on Jefferson street, yesterday caught his hand in some of the machinery, and had his thumb crushed off.

LARGE LAND SALE IN TENNESSEE.—We are informed that on the second Monday of November next, the sale of near 200,000 acres of land lying in Overton and adjoining counties, Tennessee, will commence on the premises, near White Plains, Putnam county, and continue from day to day. They are known in the vicinity as the "Manning Lands." They are to be sold under decree of the Chancery Court at Livingston for division.

POETIC READINGS.—Mr. Ambler will give his second reading from the poets at the Masonic Temple to-night. Mr. Ambler deserves a good audience, and we cordially wish him one.

MILITARY.—On Saturday Major Hunt's Louisville Battalion of the State Guard, will parade and be presented with a beautiful banner by the ladies.

THE INDIANA STATE FAIR.—This Fair is in full blast at Indianapolis. The Sentinel of yesterday says:

"W. H. Langmore, whose address is Florence, Boone county, Kentucky, is present, with two favorite nags, 'Betty Washington' and 'Bellefounder.' 'Betty' is a 'Bertrand,' sired by the prince of the turf of Kentucky, 'Highlander,' and is noted alike for beauty of style and perfect, compact formation, as well as speed. 'Bellefounder' is a heavy draft stallion, and is fully equal in his movements to his appearance. Col. Langmore is one of Kentucky's most enterprising stock breeders, and we predict for him favorable success.

STABBING.—A difficulty occurred on Green street, near the bridge on the Bardstown turnpike, Tuesday evening, in which John Back and John Roup were cut by Henry Nermeyer and John Hilt, though not seriously. The accused were before Judge Johnson yesterday morning, and required to give bail to answer an indictment.

The Courts.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT, CRIMINAL TERM, OCT. 17.—The Grand Jury returned indictments against the following persons: Robert Ellis, Wm. Benson alias Brannon, John Bohon, Christian Joy, Thos. Haley, Alf. Dix, Dan'l Burt, Andrew Hunt, Henry Burnett and Charlton Smith, f. m. c.

Commonwealth vs John Joyes, jury impaneled and case laid over until this morning. Commonwealth vs John Osborne, sol. pros. Commonwealth vs John Hennegan, Felix McMeechen and Geo. Walker, continued. Commonwealth vs Timothy Griffin, recognisance forfeited and case continued.

The following cases were set for to-day: John Joyes, Rosa f. w. c., Philip Fisher, Oscar Burns, David Daily, Minor Hood, Martin O'Donnel, Mary Crayton, Josh Davidson, Jas. O'Neal, F. T. Holmes, Jno. Bennett, John Breckinridge, Geo. Houghton.

FEDERAL COURT.—By the late act of Congress this Court has been branched. One at Covington, one at Paducah, and one in this city.

At this point the Court has been organized and its officers appointed. Our old acquaintance, and for so long a time Clerk of the Chancery Court, Chas. J. Clarke, has been appointed to take charge of the Clerk's department, and also the Commissioner of the Court, to reside at Louisville. It is useless for us to comment on this appointment. This community is too well acquainted with Mr. C.'s fitness to need any. We will, however, say the appointment is a good one, and such as should have been made to insure to the Court the business which the convenience of the community demands, and which induced Congress to pass the act. The profession can feel assured that they can have their business attended to and completely done.

CITY COURT.—Judge Johnston presiding. Thomas Conley, drunk; bail in $100 for six months; workhouse. Ann Kelly, drunk; bail in $100 for twelve months; workhouse. Henry Neimeyer and John Hilt, maliciously stabbing John Hack and John Roup; bail in $150 each to answer an indictment for misdemeanor. Gotlieb Dreiskey, assault on Welding Lehr; bail in $100 to answer an indictment for misdemeanor; bail given. Frederick Pearce, drunk; bail in $100 for six months; workhouse. Commonwealth by Susanna McDaniel vs. John W. McDaniel; own bond in $100 to answer to-morrow.

NASHVILLE RACES—SECOND DAY.—The attendance Tuesday was considerably larger, and the scene was enlivened by the presence of a large number of the fair sex, says the Banner. Judge Hunter's entry, Sherrod, by Lecompte, out of Picayune, by Medoc, was the favorite, at large odds. There were six entries, and three started. Below we give the "LOW DOWN."—The Lexington Statesman says, "some miserable wretch is engaged in the ignoble work of sending out forged letters from that place, purporting to emanate from the Executive Committee there." The man who would forge Breckinridge documents is low down indeed.

THE MARION ZOUAVES.—We are pleased to announce that this spirited corps will give an exhibition drill at the Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening next. Let the Hall be crowded, for this Company deserve all encouragement.

☞ For several years there existed a very pleasant association of Methodist preachers of the three cities of Louisville, New Albany and Jeffersonville, which had its monthly meetings in the different places alternately. But it was broken up amid the excitement attendant upon the Harper's Ferry raid. Such are ever the fruits of abolitionism, says the Ledger.

☞ Mr. Lhorten has opened an Oyster Saloon on the north side of Market street, between Second and Third, and has one of the best fitted up places of the kind in the city. Oysters and game are served up in No. 1 style, and in double quick time.

A PRINCELY PRESENT TO A KENTUCKY BELLE.—On Monday Miss Mattie Taylor, of Newport, received from his Royal Highness a magnificent diamond brooch, surmounted by his crest. The present is a token of the Prince's remembrance of the Cincinnati ball, and more particularly, of course, of the pleasure he experienced in the society of Miss Taylor, who was selected as one of his partners by the floor managers, and with whom he danced and waltzed. Whether any of his other partners have been similarly complimented, we are not aware. The brooch was made to the royal order, and is certainly indicative, if it proves to be the only case of the kind, of a decided impression having been made by the fair Kentuckian upon the royal heart.

GREAT SALE OF WATCHES AND JEWELRY. Six thousand dollars' worth of watches and jewelry will be sold at auction on Friday morning, October 19, commencing at ten o'clock, at L. Kahn & Co.'s, 404 Main street; I. Grauman, Auctioneer. Watches consisting of gold English patent levers, detached do., anchors, lapines, silver watches of every description, and jewelry of all and every variety and kind. There is no reserve whatever on these goods, therefore buyers may be sure to buy goods at their own price, and at a great sacrifice. Be sure and attend this, our very important sale. Terms cash—bankable funds.

N. B. In addition to this sale eighty dozen fine English pocket cutlery is included, which must be sold without reserve. 2

☞ Messrs. Howorth & Co., 410 Market street, will offer at auction this morning, at 9 o'clock, a very large amount of stone chinaware, of the finest quality. This is a rare opportunity.

☞ At a meeting of the students of the Kentucky School of Medicine, held at their rooms in Temperance Hall, Oct. 17th, 1860, J. M. Tydings was called to the Chair, and E. H. Dunn appointed Secretary.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. S. H. Garvin, W. B. Anderson, and Thomas W. Fingg, were appointed to draft resolutions suitable to the occasion and expressive of the object of the meeting.

The following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That while we would express our sincere regrets for the losses our honored Faculty have sustained in the partial destruction of their building by fire, on the morning of the 15th inst., we would also beg leave to return them our sincere thanks for their prompt action in securing, for our temporary use, the very comfortable and commodious apartments we are now in.

Resolved, That we tender our acknowledgements to the members of the Steam Fire Department for their prompt assistance, and to those gentlemen who aided us in preserving the Museum.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the Louisville daily papers.

J. M. TYDINGS, Pres't.
E. H. DUNN, Sec'y.

MESSRS. HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.:

Gentlemen: The object of this communication is simply to correct certain misrepresentations which appeared in the Courier of Tuesday last, relative to the arrest of Barnes, the counterfeiter. In the first place, the Courier states that I was placed in the St. Cloud Hotel by Bligh, or in other words, I was a flat placed there by him, to enable him to catch Barnes. Such is not the case. I was directed by the Chief of Police to remain at the hotel till six o'clock in the morning, when I would be relieved by Bligh. I did as I was directed. Bligh came about five o'clock, and finding the man had not come, posted off to the mailboat to intercept him, and thereby throw me entirely out of the case; but unfortunately for him, the man left the boat and came up a different street to the hotel, proceeded to his room, when he was arrested and searched by me, all of the counterfeit money taken from him and about to start to the jail, when Mr. Bligh appeared upon the ground. When Mr. Bligh appeared upon the ground.

It is not my object, in this communication, to pluck a solitary feather from the cap of Mr. Bligh, nor to detract from his world-wide reputation as a policeman. All acknowledge his ability as a detective; but whilst I do, I beg leave to state that there are others in the Police force who, with the same advantages and some information, would soon convince the citizens of Louisville there was more than one Bligh in the field. Those advantages can be named, if called for.

Yours respectfully, J. F. HAMMON.

THE GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—The only regular business of yesterday was the adoption of the new Constitution, By-Laws, and Rules of Order, reported by the Committee on Revision to the Grand Lodge at its last Grand Annual Convention.

The several sections were taken up seriatim, and a number of amendments were made in the wording of these sections, as found on pages 126 to 134, inclusive of last year's proceedings.

Much feeling was manifested with regard to the first division of the second article. There was every appearance of an approaching hard fight, but some skillful schemer moved the previous question. Before much time had been lost in amendments of the original proposition, and on call of Lodges, his motion was concurred in, and all debate cut off.

On a call of Lodges to strike out "Louisville," and insert "Lexington," the amendment was lost by a vote of 169 to 95. The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Kentucky, and its jurisdiction, is, therefore, permanently removed from the City of Lexington, to the greatly superior accommodations which our Masons and citizens have furnished at so great an expense, with a view to its use.

This vote is a signal victory. It shows clearly the misunderstood position of the friends of Lexington, who were unsustained, even by Lodges much nearer that city than to Louisville. The specious plea that the Grand Lodge had a building in the former city, belonging to her, and which of course, could be occupied free of any cost, was well met and defeated by the most generous 'profer of the Masonic Temple Company of this city—composed quite largely of citizens who are not Masons—in the use of the Grand Hall and other necessary rooms of the Temple, for her grand annual and called communications, gratuitously, so long as she might see fit to avail herself of the privilege.

This vexed and vexing question is now, we hope, for the peace and harmony of the Fraternity, permanently settled. Lexington will be satisfied that she cannot here after get a requisite vote to procure the coveted removal—her defeat, notwithstanding strenuous exertions to gain her point, should prove it. And Covington, we fear, might even be "laughed to scorn," did she propose an unanimous declaration of the Grand Lodge in her favor.

The Grand Lodge was called from labor to refreshment at six o'clock, leaving a few of the latter clauses of the General Regulations to be passed upon this morning.

At 7½ o'clock P. M., the Grand Lodge was called from refreshment to labor, for the purpose of hearing and seeing P. G. M. Rob Morris exemplifying the Webb Work and Lectures, as presented before and adopted by the Grand Lodge at its Communication of last year. In this, he was much assisted by the Grand Senior Warden elect, R. W. Hiram Bassett, of Maysville.

The lecture occupied about two hours in its delivery, and was listened to with marked attention by at least three hundred of the brethren, a large msjority of whom were representatives.

We believe the Grand Officers elect are to be installed to-day.

THEATER.—The romrntic legendary drama of the Wizard Skiff, with Miss Sallie St. Clair as the central figure of interest in this fine old-school production of the sensational class, drew another fine assemblage to the theater last night, and won for the lady a fresh meed of applause by her pantomimic rendition of the parts of Paola, Agota and Alexis. To-night the lady appears as the Female Gambler, in the absorbing French drama of Plot and Passion, which, together with other entertainments, go to make up a splendid bill. We hope Mr. Barras will give us his Hypochondriac.

ARREST FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Ben. Powell, Jr., was taken into custoday last night on an indictment for highway robbery some weeks since. He forcibly took some money from a German near the two-mile house, and cut another in the leg because he had none. Powell has been in the penitentiary once for manslaughter. He is a desperate rogue, and last summer was involved in a confidence game practiced upon a greenhorn.

☞ Last night officer Seay arrested a German on the levee for robbery. He had been employed at Mr. Ellwanger's nursery, and being discharged yesterday afternoon, he robbed a fellow workman of a gold chain and some shirt studs, and the latter were found upon him. He was excessively German, and the officers couldn't make out his name.

☞ It has been asserted that Mr. Wales, when at Cincinnati, danced with Sue. Denin and Laura LeClerc, the actresses. That ball could not have been very exclusive, or he could not have had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of those ladies.

☞ Last Monday night the hemp warehouse of Mr. Wm. Wiseman, at Lexington, was fired by an incendiary and consumed. Loss inconsiderable.

ARMS FROM ENGLAND.—The commissioners appointed under a law of the Virginia Legis sture, to procure arms for the better defense of the State, have been in correspondence with the manufacturers of the Enfield Rifle, in England, and been offered five thousand of that arm at a price near sixty five shillings, British money, or about sixteen dollars for each piece. They have written to say that they will take twenty-five hundred at that price.

☞ The Louisville Courier brings out a big gun in token of a victory that has been won in the city of Baltimore, which has elected a Bell man for Mayor on a reform ticket. Is the Courier going over to Bell and Everett?—Cin. Enq.

OCTOBER.

All through the night
The subtle frost hath plied its mystic art,
And in the day the golden sun hath wrought
True wonders, and the wings of morn and even
Have touched with magic breath the changing leaves.
And now, as wanders the dilating eye
Athwart the varied landscape circling far
What gor-geousness, what bleauury, what pomp
Of colors, burst upon the ravished sight!
—GALLAGHER.

A LORDLY PARK.—General Harding, a gentleman of great wealth, residing near Nashville, Tennessee, has a park including eight hundred acres. In it he has three hundred deer, about thirty buffaloes, and a herd of elk.

☞ A person being asked why he had given his daughter in marriage to a man with whom he was at enmity, answered: "I did it out of pure revenge."

☞ Let not despondency any longer be the ever prevailing bane of the fallen state of the human family. But, you ask, how is this to be prevented? Despondency, low spirits, despair, a tendency to look upon the gloomy side of everything, are all difficult to drive away. Doctors and medicine will not do it; the ordinary stimulating drinks of the day will not do it; but before you give the case up as hopeless, try WRIGHT'S REJUVENATING ELIXIR. As its name designates, it will put new life and animation into the drooping energies, yes, even young blood into your veins. Ye who pine upon the brink of the grave, who may have tried in vain to raise yourselves from the "slough of despair," be induced, though it may be at the eleventh hour, to try its soothing influence. Sold by all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada. J. WRIGHT & Co., sole proprietors, New Orleans, Louisiana. See advertisement.

MARRIED,

On the 16th instant, at 6½ o'clock A. M., at the residence of Mr. R. J. Milton, in Henry county, Ky., by Elder W. W. Force, Mr. REUB P. PERSE, of Louisville, and Miss LIZZIE M. MILTON.

Having linked their fate together,
May life's roses ever bloom;
May peace and joy forever
Attend the bride and groom.

On Tuesday, the 16th inst., at the residence of F. H. Keen, Esq., by Rev. Abr'm Coles Osborn, Mr. EDWARD P. THOMAS, of Newcastle, Ky., and Miss JULIA T. VALENTINE, M.D., of this city.

DIED,

LETTER No. 2.

Liver Consumption

IS THE MOST TREACHEROUS DISEASE KNOWN TO MAN.

This vile destroyer of the parent's hope—this fell monster, the devourer of mankind! There are thousands daily suffering from the early stages of this destroying malady that could be thoroughly cured, while in its infancy, by applying the proper remedies, if aware of the fatal results, would take immediate steps to check it in the bud. Oh, how many thousands, who are only slightly troubled by this irritation of the throat and air-passages this day, will be mouldering in silent dust before the expiration of twelve months, through gross carlessness on their part! Do not the bills of mortality daily prove this assertion beyond the shadow of a doubt? Is not consumption rapidly on the increase? And why? Simply because the disease is not checked while confined to the throat. This is the reason that so many of our youthful and blooming population pay the penalty of their negligence by being swallowed up in death, filling an early grave, which they themselves were accessory to in neglecting those notifications or summonses to a premature dissolution.

Like the devouring cancer, at first scarcely perceptible, until its deadly fangs are fully developed and the poor sufferer within its grasp. From this hawking and scraping up of congealed starchy mucus arises and generates those fatal symptoms by every fresh attack of cold, which the patient is very subject to on the slightest exposure, which increases the phlegm and deranges the entire system.

Seldom is the consumptive apprehensive of his alarming condition until there is a regular cough. This is the only thing that attracts his attention. This violent cough is sure to succeed the hawking. Then, and not till then, will it be termed confirmed consumption, though a few months ago it was no more than a simple irritation of the bronchial tubes.

There are several causes to be assigned to this unforeseen decline of the human being, the chief of which is a derangement of the liver. This assumes various forms, as I have previously described, and is classed thus: indigestion, dyspepsy, and liver complaint, and treated as such; and in reality is nothing more than a recumbent condition of the sternum by accident or other cause, which causes a turning inward of this gristle and pressing on the liver, controlling the action of that organ, forcing the blood to the head in a rush, constipating the bowels, producing bronchitis, succeeded by consumption, and, finally, death.

Females are very subject to this troublesome and lingering malady, and it is seldom, if ever, that a lady laboring under this annoying disease has a family. Undoubtedly, to become a mother is a rare thing, especially if she had suffered from her stomach previous to her marriage, all through the weakness and delicacy of her organization, which produces weakness and falling of the womb, and the thousand and one other maladies that females are subject to.

When the force and severity of this disease is concentrated in the stomach and throat, I shall guarantee an immediate relief, and a thorough restoration to health, should my rule be compiled with, by a gentle and mild operation on this gristle, which will remove it to its original position—without producing the slightest pain or uneasiness, without bleeding, blistering, or scarring—by the application of my silver instrument, expanding the chest and relieving the breathing as if by magic, equalizing the circulation of the blood from the head, relieving that icy coldness of the feet, leaving no tendency to costiveness after this operation is over, and removing that slimy mucus which is constantly accumulating in the throat, which torments the consumptive.

This state of things is produced by ourselves from the beginning, and, consequently, must able to the penalty and forfeiture of our lives, unless subdued while there is sufficient strength to maintain the constitution of the invalid. Oh, how many have sacrificed their lives by their own fancy, but erroneous idea, in harboring the opinion that, while they were able to eat, work and walk about, all was right, and that there was no immediate danger! Oh, poor, deluded victims! They have deceived themselves. In what false delusion does he ground his hope! Allured by his appetite and decoyed by his strength, he violates the first moral principle of self-preservation, which is the first duty of mankind.

I remain, respectfully, &c.,

J. D. PURKIN, M. D.,
Physician of the Throat and Lungs, New York.

Can be consulted at his office, in the Galt House—entrance on Second street, Room No. 1, first floor.

No communications answered until they come to the office and undergo a minute examination, which is indispensably necessary, in order to give ample satisfaction. oc18 d1

What is Said of Palmer's Vegetable Cosmetic Lotion.

W. M. STOUT, Danville, Ky., says: "I have sold it for the past seven years, and never has a case come within my knowledge of its failing to be a benefit."

J. W. Danenhower, 145 Third street, Cincinnati, says "Half a bottle has cured a troublesome eruption on my arm of five years' standing, after every other remedy had failed."

Mrs. Ann Royston, Pleasant Grove, Ky., says: "I have been entirely cured by it of tetter on my face, after trying, without avail, every other article I could hear of."

Anron Baker & Co., 47 Warren street, New York, say: "An acquaintance of ours has been cured by it of eczema on both legs and feet, after having been pronounced incurable by physicians in and out of the hospital. The writer has also been cured of the same trouble, after having tried everything he could think of for eighteen months."

Miss Sally Crutchfield, Danville, Ky., says: "It has effected a complete cure of an eruption on my face."

Dennis Meehan, 99 Malden Lane, New York, says: "Your Cosmetic Lotion has cured my face and hands, also my legs and feet, of an eruption, after having spent ten weeks and five days in the different New York hospitals without any real benefit to me."

RIVER NEWS.

THURSDAY MORNING .....OCT. 13, 1860.

The weather continues clear and pleasant.

The river commenced falling yesterday morning, and had receded four inches at the head of the falls last night.

At Pittsburg the river was falling yesterday, with four and a half feet water in the channel.

The river was falling fast at Cincinnati yesterday, having fallen sixteen inches in 24 hours.

The John Raine being unavoidably detained, has deferred her departure for New Orleans until 12 o'clock tomorrow.

Captain Sam B. Halliday received a telegraphic dispatch yesterday, from the New Orleans and St. Louis packet, City of Louisiana, to come, forthwith, and take charge of the office of that boat. He leaves this morning on the cars to meet the boat. The owners of the boat were very fortunate in securing the services of such an accountant and popular gentleman as Captain Halliday.

Captain Hinchley's new Red river packet, Nina Simmes, was launched from Townsend & White's shipyard, New Albany, on Tuesday evening in fine style. She was towed to the wharf by the ferryboat Adelaide, and will soon be completed.

The Madison Dry Dock Company have docked a large wharf boat owned at Lawrenceburg. They also have a boat on the stocks which is being planked.

Captain Robert's new boat was launched from Jones' yard, New Albany, yesterday morning.

The New Orleans Delta of Saturday says: "The W. Burton left for Fort Adams on her first trip, but returned last night in consequence of a melancholy accident. When she got to Carrollton she stopped to take on coal and get on board the bell from the steamer Robert J Ward, which had been purchased for the Burton. For the purpose of unshipping the bell from its position, Mr. P. W. Harrison, the engineer and part owner of the Burton, took a gang of men with him on to the hurricane roof of the Ward, and accidentally stepping too far backward, he fell off and struck the main deck upon his face, fracturing his skull and causing his death in a short time. He was a gentleman well-known and generally esteemed in this community, and his untimely death will cause many a pang of sorrow to the hearts of those who knew him but to appreciate his worth."

Captain A. J. Kriel purchased 12 head of extra fine cattle yesterday, at 53 75 per 100 pounds, for his steamboat customers. Andy keeps none but the very best beef, and steamboatmen can rely on having their wants filled with the best meats the market and country affords.

The towboat Windsor arrived from Pomeroy yesterday, with a tow of Pomeroy coal for Olmsted & O'Connor.

A dispatch to the Cincinnati papers say that the Messenger dropped her water wheel overboard at Island 16 on Monday evening. The Post Boy came promptly to her assistance.

The mailboat, Superior, on account of some repairs to her boiler, did not get off for Cincinnati yesterday, until five o'clock in the evening.

The Peytons arrived at New Orleans on Saturday last, and departed for this port on the same day.

The number of steamboat arrivals at New Orleans for the week ending Friday last, was three hundred and forty-one. The receipts by the above packets, says the Delta, show a very unfavorable state of affairs. Cotton has declined nearly 15,000 bales compared with last week. Sugar and molasses show very poor figures, and, with the exception of flour, Western produce makes no very favorable exhibition. The principal cause for all this must be found in the low stage of the river, which prevents boats from coming down with good loads. We append the weekly recapitulation of the receipts of the leading articles:

Cotton, bales	33,783	Beef, bbls	86
Sugar, hhds and bbls	1,191	Bacon, hhds & bxs	1,052
Molasses, bbls	83	Lard, kegs	147
Tobacco, hhds	262	Lard, keg	300
Pork, bbls	29,457	Butter, pkgs	1,000
Wheat, sacks	1,750	Cheese, boxes	1,283
Corn, sacks	14,500	Hanging, pieces	268
Oats, sacks	4,333	Rope, coils	174
Pork, bbls and tcs	384	Whisky, bbls	1,551

The Pittsburg Journal says: "Captain Willard's new boat Scioto is nearly completed. She will be one of the best boats ever constructed.

"Captain Hollingbeck's new side-wheel steamer J. F. Carr, built expressly for the Texas trade, will commence loading to-day. She will depart during the week.

"John T. McCoombs is the name selected for Captain Murray's new steamer, now being rapidly completed. She was built under the superintendence of Captain Murray, who has spared no expense or labor in bringing her out. She is named after one of our most successful merchants, an excellent boatman, and one of the cleverest men of our acquaintance."

Captain George Moore is fitting up the Prima Donna at Pittsburg for the Memphis trade.

The Adams Express Company have established an office at Paducah, Ky., and run a messenger, daily, from Cairo to Paducah, on the steamer Tom Scott. Mr. G. P. Leake, on D. G. Fowler & Co.'s wharf boat, is the agent.

Captain Pres. Lodwick's new Cairo and New Orleans packet, Prince of Wales, descended the falls yesterday, and will be fully completed at Portland. From her appearance, she will be among the finest business steamers on the Mississippi.

To the clerks of the R. M. Patton, we are indebted for a copy of the boat's manifest.

CLOSING SALE
—OF—
East Hickman Property,
FULTON COUNTY, KY.

BEING DESIROUS OF CLOSING OUT AND winding up the East Hickman Association, I shall, on the 18th Day of November, 1860,

And continue from day to day till completed, make a public sale of all the Property belonging to said Company, Hickman, Kentucky.

The Property consists of 1,500 Town Lots—some in the bottom and some on the bluff; Country Lots from 2 to 50 acres, and several Quarter Sections of Land, lying in the immediate vicinity of and adjoining Hickman.

Hickman is the western terminus of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, now in a rapid state of progress, and will be completed in less than two years. Hickman is the nearest point on the Mississippi river to the Ohio, and the cars are running daily; while at the eastern end, over ten miles are completed, and the balance under contract, and rapidly progressing. The whole road is under contract—the iron and the rolling stock purchased and coming forward, and the Company have ample means to build the road, and by the time of sale, there will be at least 60 or 70 miles of said road completed at the Hickman end.

Already a movement is on foot to extend the Iron Mountain road to Hickman, which will make it the grand chain of railroads from the southeast Atlantic seaboard to the grand prairies of the north west; and, as Hickman is the nearest point on the Mississippi to any other, but little doubt can be entertained of its success.

Surrounded as Hickman is with a country unsurpassed for its fertility and varied in its productions, its location offers a strong inducement to any branch of business. Its importance commercially is known to all familiar with the situation of the Mississippi river, while to the mechanic and manufacturer, if they will visit it, they will be fully satisfied that their interests will be advanced in making it a center of so rich, fertile and prosperous a country.

A COURAGEOUS POLICEMAN.—The New York Evening Post says:

About eleven o'clock last night the horses attached to an omnibus of the Sedbird line got frightened and ran away, throwing the driver from his box. The wheels passed over him, breaking his arm, and inflicting several internal injuries. Mr. Jacob Groot attempted to stop the affrighted animals, but was thrown down, severly bruised and one of his legs broken. Three were several ladies in the vehicle, who were much alarmed in view of the peril which menaced them. Officer Biglan heard their screams and hurried to the rescue. Throwing himself before the horses, he seized one of the bridles, and after being dragged two blocks upon the pavement, succeeded in stopping them. Aid was procured, and the injured men conveyed home. The returns pronounce the conduct of officer Biglan "gallant, daring and worthy of honorable mention."

☞ We learn from the Richmond (Ky.) Messenger, that on Friday evening, the 5th inst., Robert Aldridge, a worthy citizen of Rockcastle county, was killed by Jacob Scarborough. The skull-bone of Mr. A. was crushed by a blow from a stone hurled at him by Scarborough. The latter was arrested, tried before an examining court, and admitted to bail in $2,000—failing to give which he was committed to jail to await the action of the Circuit Court.

☞ Hear what the Edgefield (S. C.) Advertiser says of Mr. Yancey and disunion:

"But why should Mr. Yancey endeavor to fight against the general conviction that he is a disunionist. It is the very thing that has given him strength in the present hour of strife. He is certainly the cause why many South Carolinians have thrown up their hats for him. Take away his disunion strength, and Mr. Yancey, it seems to us, will be another Sampson shorn of his locks.

* * * * * * *

"At all events, we venture the assertion that ninety-nine hundredths of the disunionists per se at the South are perfectly satisfied with Mr. Yancey's extremism. It is not true they believe him to be the ruling spirit of approaching dissolution? And if this estimate of him be correct, is it not much better and much wiser that he should drop a mere warfare of policy, and come out boldly for disunion in certain contingencies?"

FACTIOUS.—We understand that the opponents to Mayor Crawford's veto of the ordinance prohibiting the use of locomotives on Jefferson street held a meeting Tuesday night, and that they talked of tearing up the railroad track in case the veto is sustained, as we hope it will be by the Council to-night.

☞ The meeting of merchants at Nashville, in regard to the management of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, was respectable, according to the Nashville papers. It adjourned after appointing a committee to formally draw up a list of grievances.

AN IMPROVEMENT IN RAILROAD CHAIRS.—An employee of the New York and Erie Road has recently invented an improvement in the arrangement of track chairs, which has been adopted by that road. Instead of spiking the chairs upon the ties, and resting the ends of the rails loosely in them, where they soon get loose enough to clatter and jar the whee's, and broom the ends of the rails, the chairs are placed between the ties, and fastened in their places by an effectual though simple arrangement of bolts and keys, so that there can be no possible variation in the level of the two ends of the rails, since both must rise and fall alike. The result is, that the cars appear to run upon a rail entirely smooth, making no jar whatever in passing off of one rail on to another.

The Prince of Wales.

BOSTON, October 18.—The special train with the Prince of Wales arrived at Longwood station shortly before four o'clock, having made the run from Albany with few stoppages, and those of only a few moments at the State city line. Mayor Lincoln, with a committee of the city government, received the Prince and suite cordially, but with little formality. The party at once entered open carriages, and under the escort of the lancers and light dragoons, proceeded to the Revere House. The sidewalks, balconies and windows on both sides of the route were thronged with people, whose welcome seemed hearty. The public demonstrations, in honor of the Prince, take place to-morrow.

Shock of an Earthquake.

SACO, ME., Oct. 17.—A severe shock of an earthquake was felt here this morning, rocking buildings, ringing bells, &c. It was accompanied by a loud report.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt all over Canada this morning.

From Denver City.

ST. JOSEPH, October 17.—The arrival of treasure from Denver city for the week ending October 17, is 23,418 45. No news of importance.

The Douglas party are holding a spirited demonstration. A large concourse of people participated, and were addressed by eminent orators. This evening a torch-light procession of great length is parading the streets, and the illumination is brilliant.

Excursion Trip.

CLEVELAND, October 17.—A party of forty members of the Philadelphia Board of Trade arrived here to day from Philadelphia, and were received by a committee from the Cleveland Board of Trade, and will meet the Board and the citizens generally at the Board of Trade rooms to-morrow. The object of the excursion is establishing more extensive business relation between Philadelphia and the Northwest. The party leaves to-morrow night for Chicago and the West.

City of Ogdensburg Sunk

OGDENSBURG, Oct. 17.—The steamer Ontario, while leaving this port about three o'clock this morning, ran into and sunk the large barque City of Ogdensburg, lying at anchor outside, in eighty feet of water. She sunk in less than three minutes after the collision, her crew having barely time to escape with nothing but the clothes they had on. The vessel was light. The steamer sustained some damage, but nothing very serious.

Arrival of the Pony Express.

FORT SMITH, Oct. 17.—The Overland Mail with San Francisco dates to September 28th, arrived here to-day.

Lieut. Beale had reached Fort Majove, fifty days from Westport, Mo. All well.

The Indians along a portion of the route were hostile.

It was reported at Los Angelos that the Indians had attacked the store house of the settlers at Fort Defiance and held possession of the post for six hours in the face of four companies of U. S. troops.

Indiana Fair.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—The State Fair so far has been a complete success. The display of all kinds of stock and machinery exceeds that of any other Fair in this State. The number of horses entered is over 600. The whole number of entries is over 4,000. There is a very large crowd of visitors today. The city is full of people. The exhibition of trotting horses begins at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

A Noble Action Rewarded.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The Humane Society has awarded a medal of the highest class to Capt. Wilson, of the Mianie Scheffer, and a silver medal to Thos. H. Connaughton, mate, with ten dollars to each of the crew. A resolution, expressing the gratitude of all the friends of humanity for the noble conduct of Capts. Leith and Wilson, was also adopted.

From Pike's Peak.

OMAHA, Oct. 17.—The Pike's Peak Express, with Denver City dates to the 11th inst., arrived to-day, bringing $14,000 in dust and $6,000 in the hands of passengers.

Gordon, the murderer of Gantz, was hung at Denver on the 6th inst.

Mining news unimportant.

Horse Thieves Hung.

FORT SMITH, ARK., Oct. 17.—Two young men of this city, known as Frank Rivers and Bob Montgomery, were hung near San Antonio, Texas, on the 30th ult., for horse stealing.

An Appropriate End.

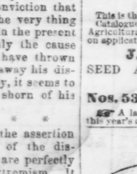
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Edward Morcane, the English sailor who insultingly threatened the Prince of Wales, in this city, died yesterday at the Bellevue Hospital, of delirium tremens.

Ice in Georgia.

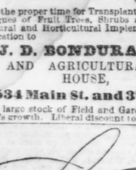
AUGUSTA, GA., Oct. 17.—There was a heavy frost this morning. The thermome ter was at freezing point, and thin ice made in the neighborhood.

Sailed.

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—The Canada sailed at 11 o'clock with 70 passengers, for Liverpool, and 19 for Halifax, and $3,700 in specie.



BEFORE TAKING THE ELIXIR.



AFTER TAKING THE ELIXIR.

Dr. WRIGHT'S
CELEBRATED
Rejuvenating Elixir!

Prepared on the strictest Pharmaceutical Principles one of the Ablest Chemists of the Age.

THIS IS ALTOGETHER A NEW MEDICINE, THE result of modern discoveries in the vegetable kingdom, being an entirely new and abstract method of cure, irrespective of all the old and worn-out systems published to accomplish quackery's ends. Dr. Wright, well knowing the deception practiced upon the uninitiated, felt it his duty at once to have this Elixir tested by the Medical Faculty, who, without even one dissenting voice, have given in their adherence to its perfect and truly wonderful power over the whole physical man when h's frame has been reduced, and when all other medicines k own to the Pharmacopœia have been tried in vain. Long-though careful patient investigation, and a nil desperandum determination, have crowned the Doctor's efforts, and he now offers the Elixir to suffering humanity as the only thing that can cure the following diseases, namely:

GENERAL DEBILITY, MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DEPRESSION, IMBECILITY, DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, CONFUSED IDEAS, HYSTERIA, GENERAL IRRITABILITY, LACK OF LESSNESS AND SLEEPLESSNESS AT NIGHT, ABSENCE OF MUSCULAR EFFICIENCY, LOSS OF APPETITE, DYSPEPSY, EMACIATION, LOW SPIRITS, DISORGANIZATION OF THE ORGANS OF GENERATION, PALPITATION OF T

And, in fact, all the concomitants of a nervous and debilitated state of the system.

AS A STIMULANT, it is quite different from alcoholic preparations. It is not subject to reactions in any shape; continues to exert its influence, gradually and efficiently, as long as the least necessity for it in the presence.

AS A FEMALE MEDICINE, it is equally powerful and effective, and restores the equilibrium sooner and safer than all the other medicines which for years have flooded the markets, and which are only fallacious, in place of assisting or renovating the constitution; for a very good reason, too, that they are only made from the effusion of minds ignorant of the medical profession altogether.

NO MINERALS!—Dr. Wright thinks it well to stake his professional character on the fact that no mineral whatever form the least component parts of the ingredients in his REJUVENATING ELIXIR—well knowing what ruin has been entailed on the community by opium and mercury.

Generally, to the debilitated, Dr. Wright would say, Never despair, but resort to the means by which you may be—no matter how weak you are—no matter what the causes may have been—forsake at once whatever has proved to be your bane, get one bottle only of his REJUVENATING ELIXIR, and you will soon find yourself a new man—a public benefit to the rescue, to your friends, and a healthy, sound and worthy member of the human family.

☞ Price $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and free as ed by mail to all parts of the United States.

Sold by all respectable Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas. The trade supplied at a liberal discount.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER HEREBY GIVES NOTICE that he will sell his entire LANDED PROPERTY on moderate terms, and now proceeds to describe it:

I have attached to my residence, one quarter of a mile distant, from Shadeland depot, on the turnpike road from Louisville to Louisville, about 31 acres of well-improved Land, having thereon a well of the purest water, a fine Orchard of choice fruit, and a large neighborhood of people and stock every day season, and would supply a first-class Hotel or Boarding House contiguous (some of them of the largest size), and the whole of it two stories high; also a dairy and granary, and commodious stables, with a brick and brick smoke-house, chicken-house, stables, stock-sheds, &c., also, a splendid garden, with a variety of choice fruit and shade trees. Said Land is in a healthy locality, and in one of the best neighborhoods in the State. Good communication to and from the city, and all the facilities for raising youth and enjoying life well that could be desired are here to be found.

I have also 70 acres of Land, one and a quarter miles distant, which also has an orchard of some 200 bearing trees, and will be ploughed for fruit-growing being elevated, it rarely ever fails to bear. Seven miles of it are under fence and in cotton field condition. Seven acres of it are timber or in trucks, as may suit purchasers. Title to all of it as good as any in the State. Apply to the owner, on the premises, or at the Democrat office.

Louisville Bone Mill,

I BEG LEAVE TO INFORM ALL THOSE ENGAGED in fattening and gardening that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of this highly valuable MANURE, and would respectfully solicit their patronage.

In Kentucky, Germany and in the Eastern States of this country, this kind of Manure has been used for many years with the greatest success. The best way to use it is to strew from 4 to 500 pounds per acre in the fall, and plow as deep as practicable for Corn. It is very profitable to put five pounds in the bottom of each hole; for Corn and Tobacco, put a handful in each hill; for Potatoes, Celery, &c., about half a dollar's worth of furrows. One of the principal savings with this Manure is in the hauling of it—the former being scattered to take as one load, in a two-horse wagon, the equivalent of twenty to twenty-five loads of horse or common stable Manure.

I am prepared to furnish any desired quantity at the shortest notice.
